Part A: Do Now (5 min, on your own)

Last lesson: quoting. Write the shortest quote that proves the point.

A1 Point: Ben is exhausted. Ben dragged himself up the stairs, collapsed onto the bed fully dressed and was snoring before his head touched the pillow.

A2 Point: the shop is unwelcoming. The shop assistant didn't look up from her phone, and a hand-written sign on the counter read: DON'T TOUCH ANYTHING.

Part B: Draw It Literally (pairs)

One partner draws the LITERAL meaning of a phrase in 30 seconds, no words. The other guesses it. Then together: name the device and say what it really means. Swap.

|---|---|
| 1 My little brother is a couch potato.
2 The classroom was a zoo.
3 Time flew.
4 Her words cut like a knife. | 5 The alarm clock screamed at me.
6 He has a heart of stone.
7 The stars were diamonds scattered across the sky.
8 The traffic crawled like a snail. |

|---|--|
| C1 The old car coughed and spluttered up the hill.
C2 The playground was a battlefield at lunchtime.
C3 Her hands were as cold as ice. | C4 The leaves danced across the empty car park.
C5 Grief was a heavy coat she could not take off.
C6 He ran like a startled rabbit. |
|---|--|

C7–C9: find one example of figurative language. Quote it, name it, and explain its effect: "It makes the reader picture ___ / feel ___ because ___."

C7 The fog crept into the harbour on silent feet, swallowing the boats one by one until only the lighthouse remained, blinking nervously in the dark.

C8 Dad's snoring was a freight train roaring through the house, rattling the windows and shaking the pictures on the wall.

C9 When the bell rang, the students poured out of the classroom like water from a burst pipe.

Part D: Exit Ticket (on your own, 2 marks)

D The deadline hung over Maya like a storm cloud, dark and heavy, following her wherever she went.

Name the device and explain its effect on the reader.
